Xi'an Polytechnic University is a comprehensive institution of higher education with a long-standing history, a solid academic foundation, and distinctive educational features. The university traces its origins to the Weaving Department of Beijing Technical School, founded in 1912. It currently has two campuses, Jinhua and Lintong, covering an area of approximately 820,000 square meters. Both campuses are well-equipped and feature beautiful environments.

Xi'an Polytechnic University offers education at various levels. It is home to 1 doctoral degree authorization discipline at the primary level, 17 master's degree authorization disciplines at the primary level, 16 professional master's degree categories, and 48 undergraduate programs. The university currently comprises 16 schools. It enrolls students from 31 provinces (autonomous regions and municipalities) across China, as well as from Hong Kong, Macao, and Taiwan, with a current enrollment of over 20,000 students.

The university has established 3 national-level scientific research platforms, 1 Key Laboratory of the Ministry of Education, 1 Public Service Platform of the Ministry of Education, 1 postdoctoral research station, 21 provincial and ministerial-level scientific research platforms, 12 provincial experimental teaching demonstration centers, 3 provincial virtual simulation experimental teaching centers, 5 national industrial technology innovation strategic alliances, 9 provincial and ministerial-level industrial technology innovation strategic alliances, 1 provincial modern industrial college, and 1 innovation and entrepreneurship base. Three discipline—Engineering Science, Materials Science, and Chemistry—rank among the top 1% in the ESI global rankings.

Xi'an Polytechnic University actively promotes international engagement. It has established cooperative relationships with over 80 universities and research institutions from more than 20 countries and regions, including the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany, and Japan. The university has been approved for 7 international cooperation platforms at provincial and municipal levels. It offers a undergraduate program in Fashion and Apparel Design in partnership with De Montfort University in the UK and carries out a variety of student joint programs and academic exchange activities with several renowned international universities.

Since 1992, when the university began admitting international students, it has welcomed students from countries such as the United States, Germany, Japan, South Korea, New Zealand, Russia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, Vietnam, Laos, Thailand, Indonesia, and Mongolia. The university offers Chinese language and cultural education, and international students may choose to participate in language enhancement programs before beginning their major studies.
